

Alan's Blackmail Letter

Dear Scum Bucket,

I know what you are doing to your poor wife and I've decided that I must tell her and save her from you.

But, maybe if you were to give me $5,000

In cash I'd be able to ease my moral outrage and not tell your poor, long suffering spouse... that dear girl.

I'll send you another letter with the drop off directions. For now just leave your lawn mower outside each night and I'll know you agree to my proposal.

Susan's Blackmail Letter

I know what you have been up to and I'll tell your husband if I don't get...

$2,000

in cash! Small bills.

Where to leave the money will be communicated to you soon. Don't tell anyone about this letter if you know what's good for you.

Don't fail to come through.

BTW, see the enclosed photos if you don't believe me.

Naughty, naughty girl!
